FOREWORD

TOGETHER WE STAND, DIVIDED WE FALL

At P.H.S., we stand together as one body trying to accomplish all the goals we have set forth. As a working body of students togetherness means so much to us. We strive for leadership, endure hardships and bring forth new comers to meet these goals that we have already accomplished.

Togetherness is a word that means very much when broken down. It explains very deeply how P.H.S. has become a powerful student body. We struggled and worked hard together to prepare for the future that we will meet. In all our trials and temptations, we have truly learned the meaning of "Together We Stand, Divided We Fall."

Miss Bailey peers over the progress made by her students.

DEDICATION

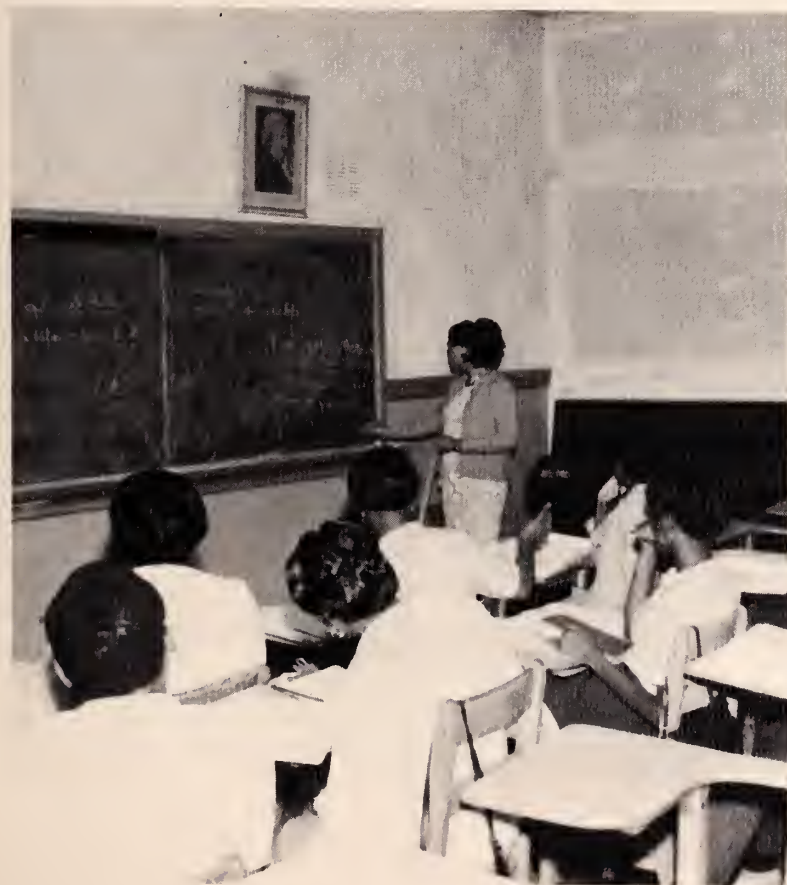

A dedicated person is one who gives of himself wholly for the advancement of his fellow-man. We, the Senior Class of 1968, have found such a person. She has, in her own way, helped each of us to reach the beginning of the long, hard road to our ultimate goals in life. She has, with inspiring words and sensible logic, given of herself unselfishly to the prosperity of every student. She is an educator, a guide, and most of all, a friend. She has been a teacher in our school system for eight years, and she anticipates teaching for many, many more years to come.

It is with great honor and pride that we, the graduating class, dedicate the 1968 Lion to Bertha Beatrice Bailey, Miss Bailey, we salute you!

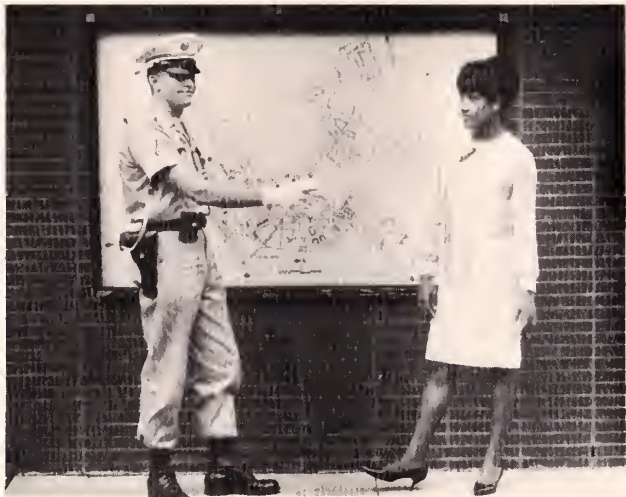

WE WERE HERE

In Virginia

Virginia is a state of integrity. Many of the great historical events have occurred here. The cities of Virginia are very prosperous and this adds to our state's stature.

Because of Virginia's historical past, this also makes it a major tourist spot. People from all over the United States and other parts of the world come to Virginia during their vacations to visit.

Beautiful in the summer and even more beautiful in the winter, Virginia is a sight to behold.

In Petersburg

Our city provides many educational opportunities for all students, not only students at P.H.S., but all the surrounding schools. There are many inspirational places to visit, such as, The Battlefield Park, where the Civil War took place. There is the "Monument To Confederate Veterans of Petersburg" and Surrounding Areas.

The industrial movement brightened our city with its new buildings and shopping areas. The beauty of these buildings and the inner feeling of proudness show that we are truly proud to be residents of Petersburg.

There are many social and civic organizations in our city that give the residents opportunities to take part in the welfare and development of Petersburg.

WELCOM

E to PETERSBURG

At Peabody High

Togetherness at P.H.S. is as essential as learning the arts of reading, writing and other basic trainings.

Togetherness in everything we endeavored brought friends and leadership through times of hardships, sorrow and joy. Many of us came as strangers but that we soon changed, for we were immediately taken in as a member of the P.H.S. family. With togetherness we've reached goals that seemed years away and we've climbed heights that seemed impossible to climb.

We the students at P.H.S. together with guidance and love, will always be, "All for one and one for all."

And This Is What We Did . . .

We the students of Peabody High School strive not only for academic achievement but we also endeavor in extra-curricular activities.

We participate in our annual follies, which is held at Peabody. Here the students display their diversified talents. The field of entertainment is enjoyable, but Peabodians have a trend to turn toward the more educational facilities offered by the school.

We have reached our academic goals not through cooperation but competition. With the cooperation from the student body and the students urge for recognition, our realization for competition has increased and aided us in our strife for excellence.

Friendship and dedication are characteristics of Peabody's Faculty and Administration

Late in the afternoon a light still burns in the teachers' workroom; inside, a weary but dedicated teacher is thinking of ways in which to make his classes more interesting to his students. An interested counselor is pondering the courses planned for a bewildered underclassman. The principal is in his office writing a college recommendation for a senior. These are all typical situations in the life of a teacher or administrator at Peabody, for each member of the Peabody staff unselfishly gives of himself to the student body.

The teacher's first responsibility is to himself. He has committed himself to the education of today's youth, tomorrow's leaders. At Peabody, each teacher seems fully aware of his duties and strives to fulfill them. Each teacher tries to acquaint his students with the most important aspects of his courses, thus preparing the students for the world which they will some day lead. He acutely realizes the importance of developing an open mind and a rational manner of thinking.

Mr. Shepperson and Mrs. Lawson have helped us diligently with the yearbook. Due to their vast consideration and diligent work, our yearbook reached some of its highest peaks. Also, because of the effort and time put forth by Mr. Shepperson and Mrs. Lawson, our yearbook reached much of its success.

These persons have displayed a tremendous interest in the prospering of this year's annual, The Lion. Therefore, we pay great tribute to them and we greatly admire their endeavor for a successful year.

With the aid of the Custodians, we can proudly say that Peabody will always be one of the most beautiful and the cleanest schools in Virginia.

Clubs and Organizations at P.H.S. provide recreational and educational opportunities for all

The student body of Peabody High School is composed of many clubs and organizations whose objectives are to enrich the student's background in certain areas, to give him practical experience, to give him a sense of responsibility, and to train him physically and mentally.

Because the Student Council serves as the link between the students and the faculty, it is the most important organization at Peabody. The Student Council plans many worthwhile and needed activities during the year. Listed among these activities are the distribution of Christmas baskets to the needy, a Christmas dance, gifts of flowers to our teachers, awards and certificates to honor roll students and honored seniors, and the annual presentation of "The Follies".

The Band, Choir, Dramatics Club and Modern Dance Group through a series of concerts in the spring, play an important role in the cultural enrichment of our Peabodians.

To stimulate the crowds and teams at the Peabody football and basketball games is the job of the cheering squad and the Pep Club. They participate in the many strenuous activities which develop their agility and coordination.

The Clubs and Organizations at Peabody help in rounding out our student body, thus preparing us for the future.

These two individuals proved their worthiness in a variety of ways during the course of their time that was dedicated to the yearbook. Through their diligent efforts, both Brenda Mason and Willie Mabry managed to accept successfully the responsibilities they possessed. Mabry's skill in picture printing and developing was outstanding. Equally important was Brenda's ability to organize her section effectively. Both persons displayed qualities of true Peabodians!!!

The underclassmen, through the Student Council Organization, also have a hand in planning activities at "dear ole Peabody" that will make their five year stay a pleasant one.

Activities

These are the persons who, serving as representatives of the various homerooms, help to carry out the mission of our President.

The Student Council, founded in 1950 by Mr. Richard Pegram, is the most important organization of our student body. Its purpose is to keep the community informed of the activities and accomplishments of all Peabodians. It performs duties such as giving the Christmas Baskets to needy people, presenting the Annual Follies, and organizing various activities for the students.

Our President, Michael Eugene Tompkins, works diligently to perform the duties of a President well-liked. In his own words, Michael says, "a President of any organization should realize his responsibilities and carry them out to the fullest extent, and above all, to work for the betterment of the student body and the school itself."

"Man with a Mission" . . . Michael Tompkins, President, quietly contemplates the gigantic task of "keeping the Peabody family together."

The Industrial Arts Club prepares the students for occupational trade.

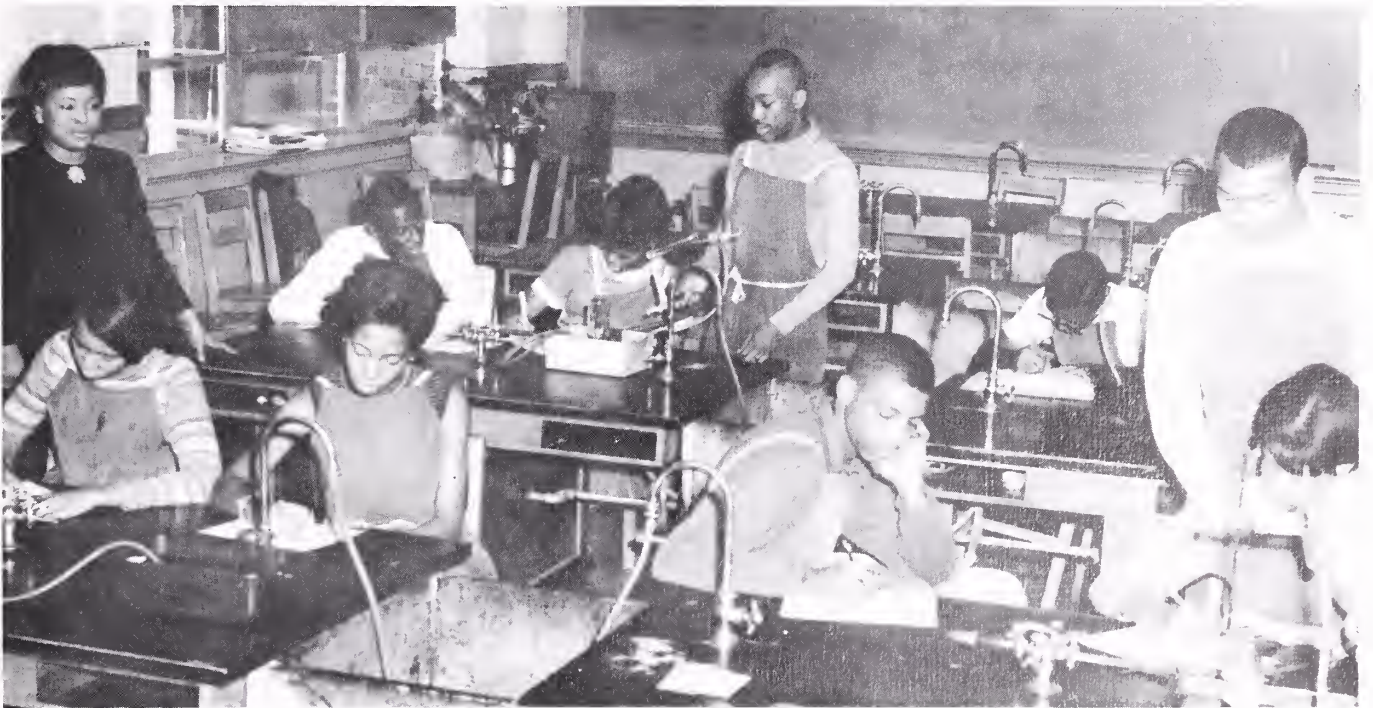

The Golf Club, sponsored by Mr. Carl Peal, proudly displays its trophy.

Science Club Breeds Tomorrow's Researchers

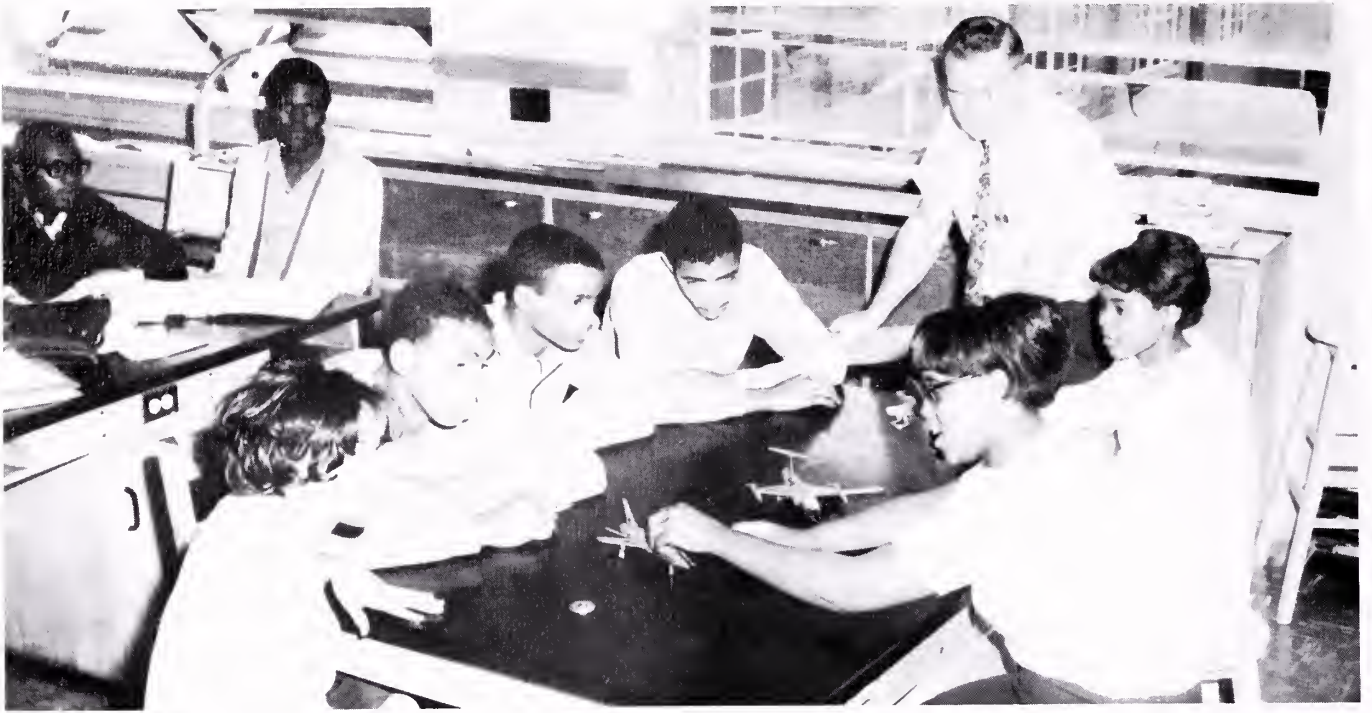

The officers and sponsors of the James Shield Club, working together, guide the members in their endeavor to discover more about the fascinating world of science.

The members of the James Shield Science Club perform various experiments to broaden the scope and to increase their knowledge of science.

Clubs Give Students an Opportunity to

The purpose of the Aero-space Club is to further the student's interest in aircrafts.

Members of the Art Club strive to further their artistic abilities.

Express Themselves Academically and Socially

"Thus I have proven without a shadow of a doubt", says Howard Cooley to the other members of the Debating Society.

The Journalism Club is composed of the Yearbook staff and Publication Club and other interested members.

The Student Publications Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Luberta Caldwell, Mrs. Lula Lawson, Mrs. Ann Phillips, and Mrs.
Majorie Fisher is open to all students interested in creative writing and reporting. The Publications Club produces semi-annually "The Peabody Script."
They also produce at least one mimeographed paper annually.

They strive to encourage and create the curiosity of the students. Included in the activities of this organization are extended invitations to represent active newspaper companies and a workshop of newspaper study.

Our three head editors Brenda Nickelberry, Editor-in-Chief, Kenneth Fisher, Sports Editor, and Stephanie Fitzgerald, Fashion Editor discuss new trends in newspaper writing.

Mrs. Lawson and Mrs. Fisher assist students in publishing the first newspaper of the year.

The Band Booster Club, organized to give the band aid in purchasing new uniforms, is shown here discussing which kind of uniform to purchase. To raise money the club is collecting S & H Green Stamps.

The Photography Club, headed by Mr. Shepperson, has as its function the taking and developing of pictures for the yearbook staff and the Journalism Club.

Forever Onward and Upward W

The Honor Society is composed of students who have maintained a high academic average through their high school career.

The National Honor Society goes through its annual induction ceremony to add its ranks to those persons who have maintained an overall average of 88 or above.

The Peabody Troupe 2123 of the National Thespian Society with Mrs. Marie Maniego as its director (center) are responsible for the superior dramatic performances at Peabody.

The Peabody High School Band, under the direction of Mr. William McKinley, performed at every football game in the past year.

They should be commended for their services, rendered both on campus and off campus. They had the pleasure, in addition to their regular activities, of playing at Va. State College for High School Day. An invitation was also extended to them to play at the University of Virginia, in Charlottesville, Va., for their particular High School Day.

Each year the band presents a concert at the Fall Festival, held at Peabody High School.

The majorettes, under the direction of Mrs. G. J. Dickens, play an important part in the band. They accompany them to many performances where they add variety and entertainment.

Under the capable direction of Mr. McKinley, the band provides

There seems to be a dispute between Paulette Walker, left; Claudette Williams, (center) and Brenda Nickleberry as to who is the "big boss" of the Peabody Cheerleaders.

A Feeling of Belonging

The Polygon Club opens its membership to all interested students who have maintained an above 80 average in Mathematics for three years. Here, we see the members and sponsors busily, and happily engaged in solving different mathematical problems.

These students have given many hours of vital service in the library. Through working as library assistants they have gained a knowledge of books, various phases of the library operation and most important, a respect for people.

Is Developed Through Clubs

To become a member of the Literary Guild would be enbroadening your knowledge of the many aspects of literature.

Future Teachers of America. This Club is designed to give students who are interested in becoming teachers the needed experience and guidance that will help them in their future career.

Organizations Accommodate

The members of the F.B.L.A. who aspire to be tomorrow's business leaders re-enact the many different roles of a business woman.

In the Foreign Language Club we not only learn the languages, but we also study their customs.

Every Interest and Desire

The Pep Club assists the cheering squad in stimulating the crowds and teams at the football and basketball games.

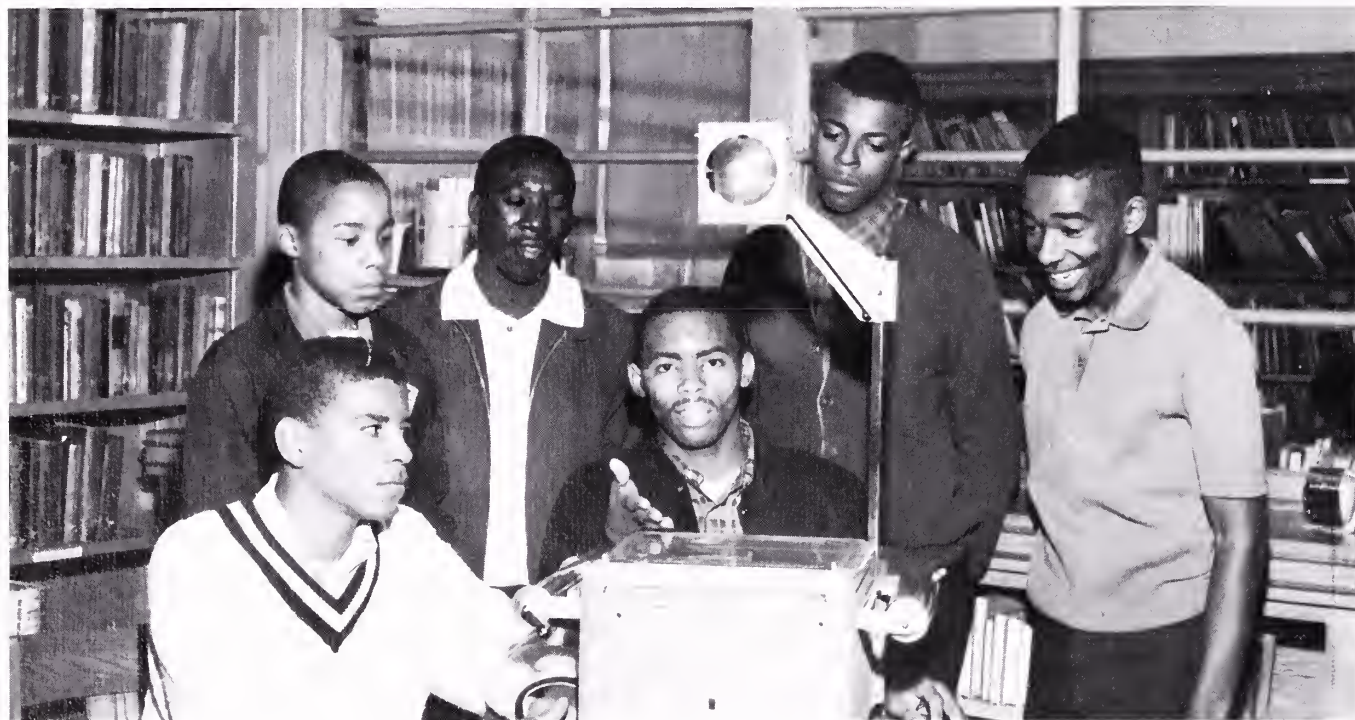

The members of the History Club do intensive research on one of the many problems that have arisen during a discussion at the meeting.

Practical Experience Is the Aim

The Future Homemakers of America Club prepares young girls for their domestic life in the future.

"See! There's really nothing to it," says Victor Grandison to the other members of the Projection Crew who wear expressions of disbelief, doubt, and humor in reply to his remarks.

of All Organizations

The Industrial Cooperative Training Club is composed of students who are learning today the skills that are needed in the business world of tomorrow.

With Angelic voices and harmonious tones, practicing unceasingly day and night, the Peabody Choir works hard to serve "dear ole Peabody".

“We, as underclassmen, have made a new start . . . in a strange paradise.”

The Eighth Graders are new in school and, seemingly, they are confronted with many problems. Among these problems are the ones stemming from the adjustments to a new environment . . . a totally "unexplored paradise."

However, our dear Freshman class has already begun their journey of expeditions and great expectations. They have also accepted the responsibility of having to accept and make their decisions--academically and socially. They participate in all sports and activities.

We all have learned what it means to respect our school and to appreciate the warm glow of admiration we feel as we sing, "Our Alma Mater." We are not just Peabodians, we are "Proud Peabodians".

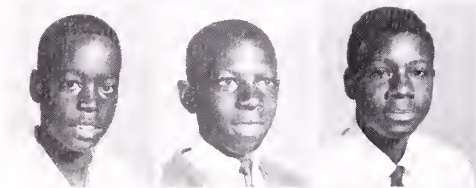

Even though the Eighth and Ninth graders are of different Classes, they always find time to associate with each other.

Sports at P.H.S.

The extracurricular activities which maintain the greatest interest of the high school community are undoubtedly "sports." Participation in Football, Basketball, Track, or Baseball, as a player or spectator, provides the basic motivation for the maintenance of school spirit--the very "life" of the school itself. Peabody High School has consistently manifested in its players, the importance of "give and take" as well as the satisfying rewards of "fair play." Exemplification of these basic assets has kept us among the top rated teams of our district and state.

SPORTS

Having been head Football Coach at Peabody for thirteen years, my faith and belief in our athletic programs continue to grow each year. I sincerely believe in the educational value of athletics. Any sport is a learning situation and an integral part of education. The athlete is often faced with a situation in which he must quickly evaluate a problem, then offer what he believes is the proper solution. Rarely is an athlete correct in all his decisions, but the one who has learned to think rapidly and logically is must more successful than his thinking counterpart.

Athletics have become more and more intricate as time has passed. To be truly successful, a boy must be able to think quickly and adjust to situations that may change with extreme suddenness. He does not have to mull over several possible solutions; he is either right or wrong! As in any educational situation, frequent repetition will provide him with the background to make the proper choice. Show me a successful man and I will show you an ATHLETE.

During his thirteen years as basketball coach of the Lions Varsity Team, Coach Peal has done an excellent job of shaping our young athletes into fine basketball players and thus, Peabody has reaped the benefits by enjoying many successful seasons. Coach Peal's words of encouragement as well as his methods of criticism have played an important role in stimulating our young men on to greater achievements on the basketball court.

The Lions look forward to another outstanding year!!

J.V. BASKETBALL

Mr. Leroy Ellis, coach of our J.V. Basketball Team, is a former graduate of Peabody High School and received his degree at Virginia State College. Mr. Ellis stated that he considers it an honor and a pleasure to be the Coach of the J.V. team. He states, "Basketball has been a way of life with me since my days here at Peabody. It gives me a very good feeling to work with the man, Coach Peal, who gave me a tremendous start toward my future." In conclusion he states, "Peabody is a wonderful school and I am elated to be a member of its faculty."

Sophomores and Juniors of PHS

As Juniors, they are facing the busiest time of their lives. They are thinking about applications to college, the Ring Dance and Prom with the Seniors, which will be the feature of the year.

The Sophomores cannot as yet be classified as upperclassmen. They are trying to make their presence known, by appearing in different clubs, organizations and sports. For one year, they hang suspended between adolescence and adulthood.

Having been at Peabody only two years, the sophomores haven't quite found themselves. They are still a bit confused. On the other hand, the juniors, having been here three years, find themselves taking permanent places in the Peabody family.

Pictured, we see the new band uniform being worn by Robert Moore. These uniforms were made possible by hard work from our Band Booster's Club, students, faculty, and community.

Features, the key of life to every Peabodian

The feature section of the 1968 Lion hopes to bring to you some of the great events in the life of Peabody. We are very proud of our accomplishments and because of this we want to exhibit our talents to other people as well.

For example, the crownings of Miss Peabody and Miss Campus Sweetheart were characterized by many suspenseful and fun filled days.

Besides this, we also presented cultural events in the Spring of the year, in which various organizations such as the band, choir, Dramatics Club and Modern Dance Group participated. But let's not forget our scholars, for they are important too.

Last, but not least the celebrating of the Christmas season by our Peabody family was important because it showed the true spirit of Christmas.

These are just some of the adventures in the life of a Peabodian, for it would be impossible to show and tell everything. As a result it is hoped that you would get an idea of our big happy family.

At Peabody High we love to come to school to see what is happening. Junius Williams and Hazel Lundy are very anxious to enter the doors of Peabody High.

OUR TALENTED CONTESTANTS

Miss Joan Bolling presented a dramatization of "The Creation."

Miss Patsy Gee presented a comedy skit, which drew a lot of laughs. She was just great!

Miss Linda Williams presented her rendition of Alfie. She really displayed her talent.

Miss Laverne Jones has taken an excerpt from "Sound of Music" and turned it into a beautiful skit.

Miss Brenda Nickleberry did a dance interpretation of "Hobo Flats". You can see she is really talented.

Miss Emma Butcher, a future fashion designer, showed some of her designs as her talent; isn't this unusual?

10 VIVACIOUS YOUNG LADIES VIE FOR CROWN

These ten beautiful young ladies are vieing for the title of Miss Peabody. They represent the epitome and grace of our school, with their poise and personality. Surely they capture the attention of all who see them.

Follies A Go-Go

Mr. Albert Jones is really sending out "soul" with his rendition of "Love is A Hurting Thing".

Miss Gracie Webb is making her first appearance with us. She is really thrilling the crowd with her style of "Baby, Baby".

Junius Williams, Anthony Chambliss, Mildred Vaughan and Stella Jones played vital roles in the production of our yearbook. Without their time and patience, this hard and tedious task, would have never been completed.

Outstanding Contributors of the 1968 "Lion"

Working on the yearbook is fun, but hard, and as a result of their constant devotion and contribution, Anthony, Junius, Mildred and Stella have been named outstanding contributors to the "Lion".

Mr. Rainey looks on the queen with an approving eye.

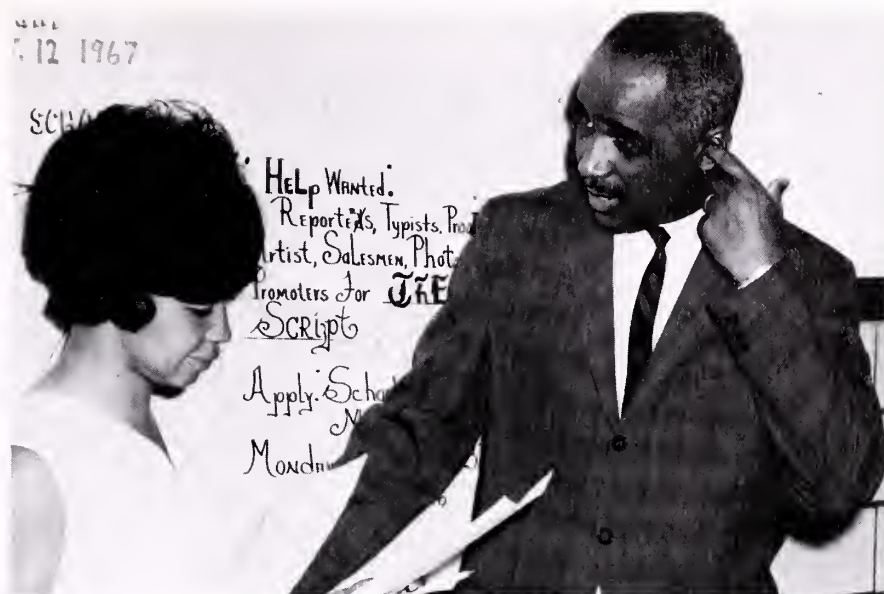

MISS PEABODY REIGNS

She reigns over all!

Miss Peabody accepts her crown graciously and tearfully as she faces her audience.

I don't know, let me see if this is right.

TEACHERS AT WORK

What did I do now!!

Is this French!!

Hats off to these young people. Valerie Wright, Anthony Chambliss, Brenda Mason and Brenda Nickleberry. Let the lamp of knowledge keep burning.

MERIT SEMIFINALIST AT PHS

Our drama department headed by Mrs. Marie V. Maniego has won numerous awards. This year they presented a famous Broadway play, "The Teahouse of the August Moon."

The choir directed by Miss Franklin has brought much fame to Peabody. At the festival the choir combined sacred music with music from leading Broadway musicals.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

The Modern Dance Group headed by Mrs. Dickens presents its recital each year. It consists of many talented persons presenting dances from the modern jazz to the latest teenage sounds.

Mr. McKinley, our band director, heads Peabody's fine band. They are noted for playing fine pieces of music for young and old.

MISS PEABODY

Miss Brenda Nickleberry

Miss Gloria Massenburg

MISS CAMPUS SWEETHEART

"The Tree," symbolic of family unity, really proves its point by bringing together Kenneth Lee, Carolyn Spriggs, Bruce Cartwright, Valarie Mitchell and Treska Wilson in the annual Christmas play.

The Journalism Club, headed by Miss Wright, really brought Christmas to Peabody by decorating this beautiful green tree.

The choir, presented their Christmas concert this year, to a very pleased and delighted audience. William Batts really gave out the spirit of Christmas, by singing "O Holy Night."

THE SPIRIT

OF CHRISTMAS

Carolyn Spriggs and Albert Jones are musing over their past Christmas with their children in the play "The Tree" presented by the Dramatics Club.

Unpictured: Miss Barbara Hargroves a graceful, poised freshman reigned as the third runner-up. We as, Peabodians were so sorry to see such a personality leave us.

MISS LAVOGUE GIRL

We are approaching the crossroads of life

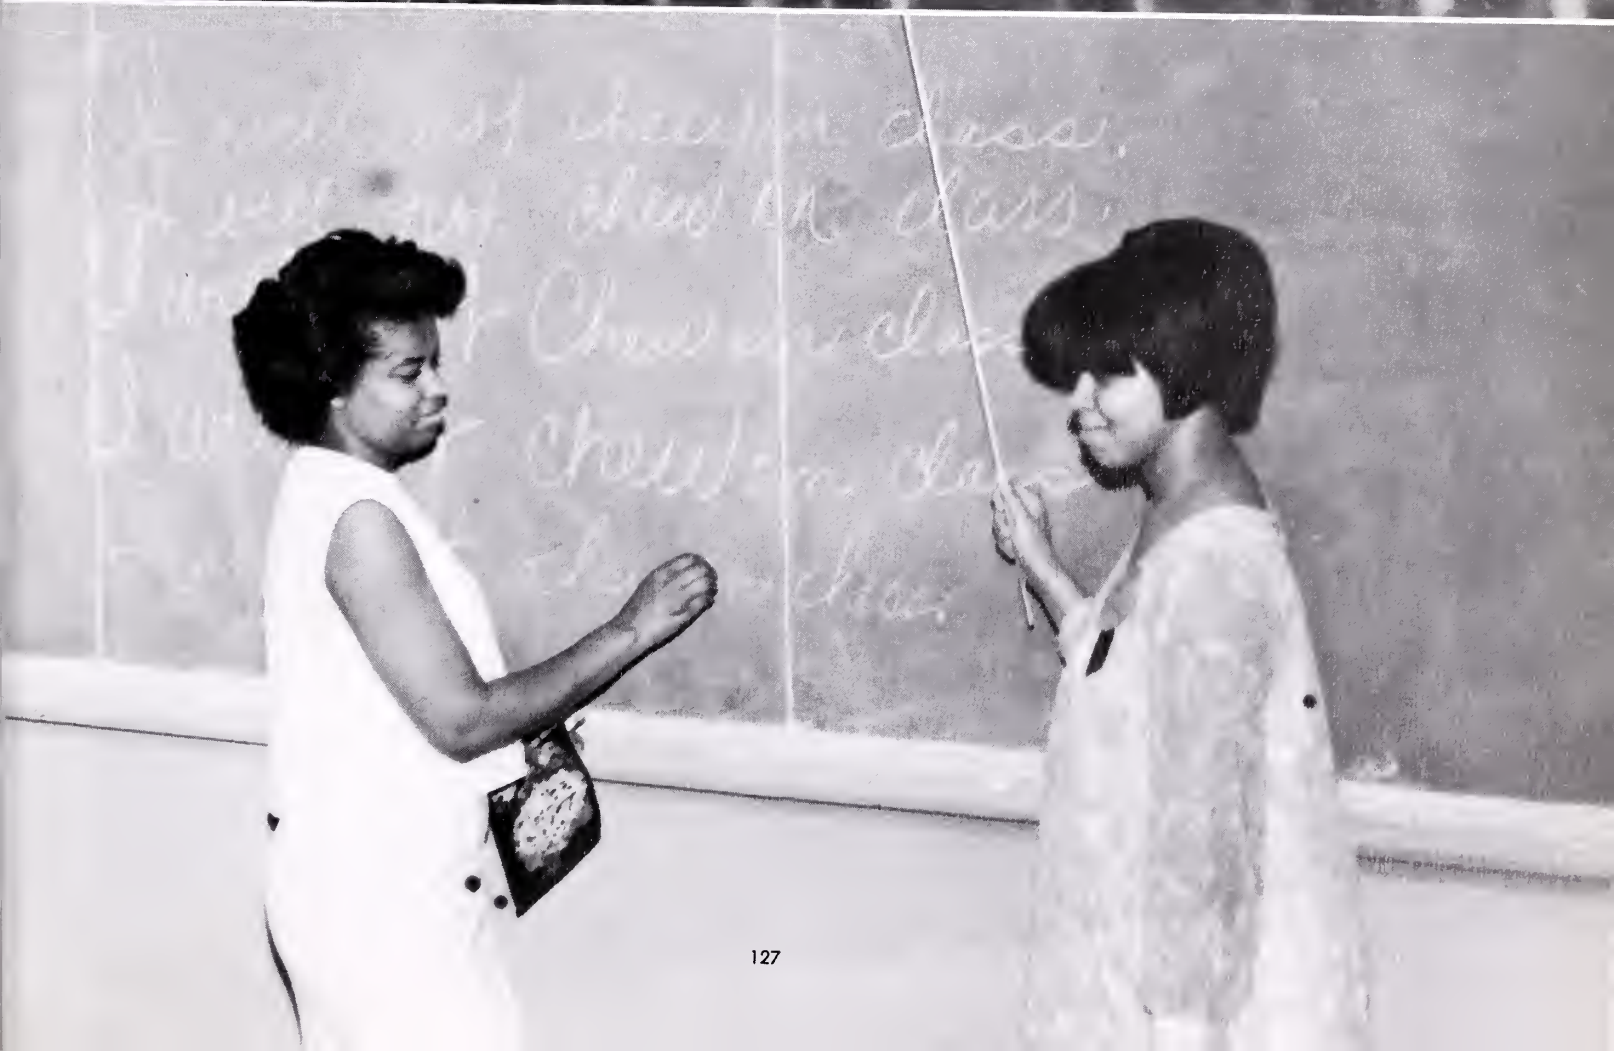

The seniors, who hold the most distinguished position in the Peabody student body, are approaching one of the crossroads of life. Now, the most important decision to be made is that of pursuing a career.

Seniors are not always sophisticated enough to approach this recognized place in life. Confused by College Board Examinations, overnight research papers, and trig. classes, we wondered what this crazy, mad, race would accomplish for us. These weren't all of the problems; there were class fees, money for pictures, and confusion concerning whether to take pictures in sweaters or drapes. After these crises, it was not astonishing to find that many of the senior girls cried when they marched across the platform to receive their diplomas.

The five years were trying ones for the seniors, but now that we are approaching the crossroads of life, it is necessary that we find out "just who we are."

Sponsors and Officers Lend

There's a time for work and a time for play. Our Senior class meetings are filled with tears, laughter, regrets and most certainly work. Here one of our sponsors gives us her time at one of our meetings.

We proudly introduce our sponsors: Mrs. M. Fisher, Mrs. G. Norbrey, Mrs. F. Walker, and Mrs. S. Gist.

Kenneth Fisher was chosen to lead his Senior Class because of his diligent and laudable work throughout his high school career. Under his leadership we, the Senior Class of 1968, developed a "Code of Ethics," to which we pledged with a pin on Senior Day. President Fisher has proved beyond a doubt that he is a born leader. He is an outstanding member of the football team, in which he was chosen to the All Central District Team and received honorable mention on the All State Team. Among his school activities, he is sports editor of the yearbook and of the school newspaper. Upon graduation he plans to attend college and enter the field of Recreational Rehabilitation.

What are the ingredients of a successful yearbook? Hard work and dedication? Surely, we cannot deny the fact that these ingredients play an important role in the building of a successful yearbook. However, a successful yearbook has yet another ingredient that many tend to ignore--available funds. Without a source of available funds there could be no yearbook and for many, the loss of pleasant experiences shared with their classmates.

Who are these loyal, faithful and concerned people who willingly supply us with available funds? These patriotic people are none other than our local citizens and civic minded merchants. These citizens have clearly shown their interest in our school and its activities through their donations and advertisements.

It is because of these citizens' willingness to see our school prosper that we, the staff of the 1968 Lion, are acknowledging their support and are dedicating this section to them.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

Although now you are graduates, you can do a great service for the rest of us, if you never cease to be students--looking for opportunities and ways to cherish the American system of free enterprise and to improve the American way of life. You can be thankful for these schools in a country where you are free to worship and think and talk as you please. This is your heritage from the people who built America.

THE FUTURE is pretty largely in your hands--you must be vigilant and active to combat the evils of socialism, government domination of private industry, and all the "isms" that destroy democracy. We depend upon you to do a good job.

ELECTRICITY: MUSCLE OF INDUSTRY

Behind the great industrial might of America stands a "giant workman"--electric energy. It would require the muscle energy of 70 men working 40 hours a week for one whole year to equal 10,000 kilowatt hours of electricity--less than the average annual consumption of two Vepco residential customers. Yes, electricity is the "muscle" behind our power and prosperity.
